

WASHINGTON LEADERSHIP
TRAINING INSTITUTE

Develop professionalism, communication and leadership skills while talking with elected officials as a voice for career and technical education at the Washington Leadership Training Institute.

Washington, D.C.

SkillsUSA's Washington Leadership Training Institute (WLTI) focuses on developing professionalism, communication and leadership skills. WLTI has separate training tracks for students and advisors that teach the skills needed to effectively communicate the impact of career and technical education to legislators in Washington, D.C.

For more information, go to: <http://bit.ly/WLTI17>

Conference activities include

- Engaging student-led training sessions
- Congressional visits
- Nighttime D.C. monuments tour
- Wreath laying ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknowns
- Visit to the National 9/11 Pentagon Memorial
- Celebration night at the SkillsUSA Leadership Center
- Earn the SkillsUSA National Statesman Award

Fees and lodging

Registration Fee: Registration fee is $450 per person and includes some meals, a conference notebook, training materials and all conference activities.

Lodging: Hilton Alexandria Mark Center
(new location closer to D.C.)
5000 Seminary Road, Alexandria, VA 22311
Telephone: 703-845-1010

Registration opens: Aug. 1, 2017
Registration closes: Aug. 30, 2017

Students who are interested in attending WLTI must contact their state SkillsUSA director.

SkillsUSA WLTI

Sept. 23-27, 2017

Mark Your Calendar: WLTI 2018 at the Hilton Alexandria – Sept. 22-26