Eligibility Requirements
Applicants must be current student/professional and Alumni members during the school year preceding the National Leadership and Skills Conference. If you have not yet paid your SkillsUSA membership dues, please go to www.skillsusa-register.org/Login.aspx. To check for state dues, go to www.skillsusa.org/membership-resources/advisors/dues-and-deadlines/. For questions or if you prefer to pay over the phone by credit card — MasterCard or VISA, please call 800-355-8422.

Student members must have a school instructor/SkillsUSA advisor accompany them, if required by their state director or local school. This individual must also join the NCC and work alongside his/her student(s) in performing the duties of the NCC members. (It is preferred that the accompanying instructor/SkillsUSA advisor is from the same school as his/her student(s); however, the instructor/SkillsUSA advisor can be from any school within the state.)

When approved by the state director, when an advisor/instructor is not present the state must provide contact information for a person/s who will take responsibility for students in the event of an emergency situation and/or a rule violation at any of the events or facilities, in which, the students are participating. This person must be in attendance of the National Leadership and Skills Conference and be accessible any time of the day or night.

Any participant unwilling to perform the following responsibilities will be responsible for reimbursing SkillsUSA for all expenses incurred including meals, room charges, registration fees and activity fees.

Responsibilities
• Must be registered and on site by 4 p.m. Saturday afternoon.
• Maintain the National Courtesy Corps Headquarters and an Information Booth
• Assist with national officer interviews and delegate sessions

• Assist with preparing the stage and displaying medallions for the Awards Ceremony
• Assist with the collection and distribution of contest awards
• Assist with security, including name badge checks at all entries prior to the opening of the contest areas to the public, early entry of contestants on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday
• Work hours are typically 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and three evenings during the week...
• Members must request permission from the NCC management committee to spend time away from University of Louisville (campus).

Benefits/Expenses
• Conference registration fee is waived
• Sleeping rooms provided
• All meals beginning Saturday night through the following Saturday morning
• Certificate of participation
• Pass to SkillsUSA night at Kentucky Kingdom Amusement Park or other event.
• T-shirts for each day (contingent upon industry support)
• NCC members must pay for their own transportation to and from Louisville, KY; any parking expenses for those who drive; snacks; in-room movies; telephone calls; souvenirs; and, any other personal expenses.
Housing
Sleeping rooms will be provided at University of Louisville. All participants must stay at this designated campus for NCC members every night during their stay. Room assignments are determined by the NCC management committee. Generally, participants from the same school (gender considered) will be housed together. Accommodations may be two to four per room, depending on space availability. Instructors/advisors are assigned two per room, depending on space availability. Married participants will be assigned a room together.

Dress Code/Personal Items
All clothing must provide appropriate coverage that would be required in an actual job setting. Neat and clean jeans, khakis or Dockers-style pants or shorts (conservative length) may be worn. No skirts will be allowed. All participants will be given Four T-shirts for daily wear and another shirt(s) for the opening and closing ceremonies (contingent upon industry support).

The shirts for the opening and closing ceremonies are to be worn with black Dockers-style or black dress pants provided by the NCC member. Shirts will not be altered in any way prior to or during work assignments. This includes removing sleeves or personal messages without approval from NCC management committee.

Participants should wear comfortable shoes throughout their stay—no sandals, open weave, open toes or heels, or flip/flop style shoes will be allowed during work hours. No hats or baseball-style caps are allowed to be worn during work hours. It is recommended that participants bring a fanny pack or pocket wallet he/she can keep with them at all times—there is no secure place to leave purses and backpacks during work hours. Participants should wear a watch—not knowing the time will not be an acceptable excuse for being late or missing assignments/events. Most importantly, make sure you bring either an original, current medical insurance card or a copy and keep it with you at all times during the National Leadership and Skills Conference.

Students and Advisor/Instructor participants will provide a cell phone number that they can be contacted on at all times during the conference. Any students without a phone will be posted in work areas near Courtesy Corps Headquarters. Cell phones are allowed on the floor as long as they do not become a distraction.
