

Editorial Profile:

To individuals interested in cultivating leadership skills, SkillsUSA Champions is a dynamic resource that inspires and creates a virtual community of students and teachers through relevant and inspiring content. SkillsUSA is a national, nonprofit organization of over 360,000 high school and college students and teachers who are involved in training programs for technical, skilled and service occupations. With 18,000 chapter and 53 state and territorial associations, SkillsUSA has a truly national reach. In addition, more than 600 corporations, trade associations and labor unions support SkillsUSA's work through financial aid, in-kind donations and volunteer time.

SkillsUSA Champions is vibrant and modern, yet professional. The content can be read quickly, providing useful news and information for all audiences. Teachers can implement Champions in their own classrooms, students can use it in their career decision-making, and through it, corporate sponsors can see the value of the program they are supporting.

Since 1965, SkillsUSA has helped prepare America's students for employment in high-performance work environments. It provides educational experiences, including the SkillsUSA Championships, that help teach leadership, teamwork, citizenship and character development.

In addition to local, state and national competitions for students in occupational and leadership skill categories, SkillsUSA also provides curricula for training high school and college students in management, networking, workplace ethics, job interviewing and teamwork. These specialized curricula are used in career and technical education; apprenticeship training; cooperative education; and school-to-work, academic and special needs programs.
