IN-PERSON INTEGRATION EXAMPLE:

Activity: Card Pairing

Additional materials needed: None

Time Frame: Five to ten minutes

Directions:

- Place a Results to Honor card at each student’s desk prior to arrival, ensuring each student has a different Essential Element if possible.

- When students have assembled, instruct students to read the front and back of their card. Alternatively, make this reading your bell work task.

- “When I say, ‘pair up,’ take your card and find a partner who shares your birthday month. Pair up.”

- When students are paired, instruct each pair to take three minutes to respond to the following prompts:
  - Which Essential Element honor card did you receive?
  - Describe a person you know to whom you would like to present this card and explain why you chose them.

Both partners should share.

- If time permits, allow students to change partners and share again.

- When time elapses, instruct students to return to their seats and consider allowing one or two students to share with the entire group.

VIRTUAL INTEGRATION EXAMPLE:

Activity: Celebrate Excellence

Additional materials needed: None

Time Frame: Three to five minutes per presentation

Directions:

- Issue a Results to Honor card to each student at the beginning of the school term.

- Assign each student a different presentation date and the virtual platform meeting information.

- Instruct students to identify a classmate who models excellence in the SkillsUSA Framework skill outlined on their assigned card.

- Direct students to prepare a three- to five-minute presentation describing how their peer exhibits at least three of the behaviors on the back of the card.

- Presentations should include visuals.
