2021 National Leadership and Skills Conference
“Who May Compete at Home”
Updated 5.12.21

Every effort should be made to provide opportunities for contestants to compete at their school to be appropriately supervised and supported. If a student is competing from home, they cannot receive the technical support they would receive at school.

The structure and design of some of the NLSC competitions are such that students could compete at home if deemed necessary. Below is the complete list of contests where contestants may compete from home.

Leadership Competitions
- American Spirit
- Chapter Business Procedure
- Chapter Display
- Community Service
- Extemporaneous Speaking
- Job Interview
- Occupation Health and Safety: Single and Multiple
- Outstanding Chapter
- Pin Design
- Prepared Speech
- Promotional Bulletin Board
- T-Shirt Design

Occupational Related Competitions
- Health Occupations Professional Portfolio
- Medical Math
- Medical Terminology
- Related Technical Math

Technical Skill Competitions
- Welding Sculpture

SkillsUSA requires all other competitions to be on-site to supervise students by school personnel so that technical support can ensure contest integrity and proper supervision ensure students' safety and health.