Personal Contributions to the Team

Each chapter officer brings unique talents and insight to the team. Let’s explore what our personal contributions to our chapter officer team are!

First, determine three things that you are good at doing, and genuinely enjoy doing:

1.
2.
3.

We have now recognized three personal contributions we possess that allow us to bring value to our team! Think of a time when you used each of these assets in a team or group situation. Explain below:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Each member of your team has strengths that will further the team’s progress in achieving team goals. Discuss your personal contributions with your chapter officer team members, and write down one strength that they each possess below:
Brainstorm with your team why you think it is valuable to know what each team member is contributing? How does this help you work better as a team?

Recognizing what each chapter officer member contributes to the team allows us to work together better because we know the strengths that we each possess! How do you envision that you will use your strengths to make contributions to your chapter officer team and in your role as a chapter leader?

As a part of a chapter officer team:

As a SkillsUSA chapter leader: