

SkillsUSA Framework

SkillsUSA Framework Bingo brings fun to the classroom or a chapter meeting. Three types of cards are available for any number of students.

Bingo

BASIC BINGO (Pages 2–29)

Basic Bingo can be used in class, during a meeting or even virtually through an online session; simply ask students to print out one card. There are three sets of cards, one set for each of the SkillsUSA Framework components: Personal Skills (10 cards), Workplace Skills (10 cards) and Technical Skills (5 cards).

- Play like traditional bingo.
- Give each student one card.
- The goal of the game is to get five in a row vertically, horizontally or diagonally.
- Focus on one component or mix it up with all three.
- Print out the word bank or banks to randomly draw or select from.
- The cards feature Essential Elements down the center and behaviors of that element on both sides.
- Draw or select one behavior.
- Read aloud.
- Students mark the behavior off of his or her card if it appears on the card. Discuss the behaviors and Essential Elements as desired.

INTERACTIVE BINGO (Pages 30–32)

These cards get students up and moving and interacting with each other. Interactive Bingo is perfect for in class, during a meeting or workshop, or can be given as an assignment to complete outside of class. There are three cards to choose from, one for each Framework component: Personal Skills, Workplace Skills and Technical Skills.

- Choose one area to focus on by giving each student a copy of the same card.
- The cards feature behaviors of the Essential Elements.
- Students must find others who demonstrate the behaviors listed on the card and ask him or her to sign the appropriate box.
- The goal of the game is to complete all boxes.

ACTION BINGO (Page 33)

This card challenges students to practice the skills of the Framework by putting them into action.

- Give each student the card and specify a time limit for completion.
- Note that some of these prompts will take an extended period of time to complete.
- Students will choose which tasks to complete.
- The goal is to complete five in a row vertically, horizontally or diagonally.
- Have students document their actions with photos or through a presentation.
